

The Greensboro Commission on the Status of Women
City of Greensboro

Invites Your Nomination For

The 2004 Young Woman of Achievement Award

The Burroughs-White/Kirk Award

In November 2002, Commissioner Maria Byars, Chair of the Women's History Education Committee, recommended that the Commission on the Status of Women establish an award to recognize the contributions of young women in Greensboro. To honor the many years of service that Councilwoman Claudette Burroughs-White and Dr. Sarah Kirk have given to benefit youth, college students, the Commission on the Status of Women and the community, members of the Commission has named this award the Burroughs-White/Kirk Award.

The Commission invites nominations for this award, to be given annually, that celebrates the contributions of young women in the greater Greensboro community.

Your nominee for the Young Woman of Achievement Award is intended for a young woman who is a high school or college student between the ages of 14 and 22 years old with a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. The award represents outstanding contributions in the area of community service that has had significant impact on Greensboro. The recipient of this award should exemplify leadership qualities and a passion to be a positive influence on her peers and community.
